Bangor Aug 21st 1834.

Esteemed friends. I hope You and all Your coadjutors are well, and supported as You naturally will be, by all that is heavenly and divine. And blessed be the God of mercy and truth, who has made You willing and able to perform the Great work of righteousness, which he has Given You to do. When I Gaze oft times upon The mighty progress of the holy cause in which You are engaged I am ready to exclaim how powerfull is truth when Spoken in accordance with the high Commands of a Just God. The conversion of Mr. G. Birney undoubtedly is Some of the fruits of Your Philanthropic Labors, and I Greatly rejoice with You in hearing Gained Such a prize; and cannot but tender thanks to God for Giving to the cause Such a powerfull instrument. My friends of our cause and all the Colored people have Great reason to rejoice over the Masterly Letter of this Gentleman. For truth, force of reasoning and intelligence of language Mr Birney I think has no Superior. Mr Pomroy Sends his respects through me to You all—expreped Great Satisfaction in the perusal of this Letter and pronounced his best blesings on the good effect it shall produce.

I have had some warfare with a few of the Circumcised Philistines of this place and I flinch not to do my duty as a Soldier, one in particular fell a victim to the truth. I am happy to say there seems to be rather an increase of Zeal here in our favor. I this day read with regret the disturbances at Philadelphia but in these Latter days we can expect nothing else. but their day of triumph is at an end. I hope friend Coffin whose excellent Letter I read in the last Liberator will comfort our friends in their sore affliction.

I would Give You a discription of This newly organised City, which no doubt would be interesting to You had I not allready intruded on your time more to be appreciated in Your Editoral Labors.

You both compaintedly will except the assurance of my personal esteem and best wishes. with which I Remain most truly Yours &c. Of the Yorks
